

CHANGING THE GAME

Creating a High-Performing Mindset in Our Kids

Conventional wisdom holds that youth sports are a positive experience for our children, yet 70% of children drop out of organized athletics by the age of 13. Youth sports has become an ultra-competitive, adult centered enterprise that has taken the "Play" out of "Play ball" for far too many kids, but we can change that. Glen Mulcahy will be doing presentations for Greater Edmonton Lacrosse Council where you will learn;

- Changing the Game: How to Keep Kids in Sports!
- Leadership Secrets from the Worlds Greatest Coaches and Organizations

Wed. April 5th and Thur. April 6th, 2017

Changing The Game Sport Development Evenings

Glen Mulcahy is a former youth athlete who played on three provincial winning teams in Hockey, Football and Rugby, completed a degree in Physical Education (Kinesiology major) and has now coached various sports for over 20 years. Since 2009 he has also been a coach mentor in his role as Hockey Canada NCCP Facilitator for BC Hockey running the required clinics to certify 1000's of coaches in the competitive and recreational streams of minor hockey.

Glen is also a parent of two kids that have played recreational and competitive sports since 2000 and as a result of the numerous issues that he has seen first hand that has taken the "Play" out of youth sports, he founded PARADIGM Sports to work with parents, coaches and executive members so we can bring the game back to the kids ... where it belongs.
